PARISH BULLETIN BOARD ANNOUNCEMENTS

(Please have submissions for this section to Father by Wednesday.)

A Possible New Home For Our Parish – We have an excellent long-awaited opportunity for our parish to survive and flourish. The Church Council and Relocation Committee has recently been exploring an existing building that sits on nearly 2 acres (which will give us room for parking and a bit of green space for the children) at:

2568 Wexford Bayne Road
Sewickly, PA 15143

The building was started, but never finished. The roof is good and the foundation is in great shape. The inside has wall studs, electric run, plumbing started, and utilities in place, but no drywall or anything finished. In comparison: North Side is 60 ft. wide and about 125 ft. long;

Wexford building is 60 ft. wide and 135 ft. long. Feel free to drive to the Wexford Exit of 79 and look at this site (about ¼ of a mile from the exit). It is practically a neighbor of Saints John and Paul Catholic Church.

+++ +++ +++

Special Meeting Scheduled – We will have a special parish meeting following the Divine Liturgy on Sunday, July 22nd. At this meeting a vote will take place concerning the building opportunity in the 79 corridor.

+++ +++ +++

Prayer Request – Please continue to pray for our parish community and the journey that we are on together!

SUNDAY’S SCRIPTURE READINGS

Epistle: Romans 15:1-7

Please Others, Not Yourselves

15 We who are strong ought to bear with the failings of the weak, and not to please ourselves; <sup>2</sup>let each of us please his neighbor for his good, to edify him. <sup>3</sup>For Christ did not please himself; but, as it is written, “The reproaches of those who reproached thee fell on me.” <sup>4</sup>For whatever was written in former days was written for our instruction, that by steadfastness and by the encouragement of the scriptures we might have hope. <sup>5</sup>May the God of steadfastness and encouragement grant you to live in such harmony with one another, in accord with Christ Jesus, <sup>6</sup>that together you may with one voice glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Gospel for Jews and Gentiles Alike

<sup>7</sup>Welcome one another, therefore, as Christ has welcomed you, for the glory of God.

+++ +++ +++

Gospel: Matthew 9:27-35

Jesus Heals Two Blind Men

<sup>27</sup> And as Jesus passed on from there, two blind men followed him, crying aloud, “Have mercy on us, Son of David.” <sup>28</sup> When he entered the house, the blind men came to him; and Jesus said to them, “Do you believe that I am able to do this?” They said to him, “Yes, Lord.” <sup>29</sup> Then he touched their eyes, saying, “According to your faith be it done to you.” <sup>30</sup> And their eyes were opened. And Jesus sternly charged them, “See that no one knows it.” <sup>31</sup> But they went away and spread his fame through all that district.

Jesus Heals One Who Was Mute

<sup>32</sup> As they were going away, behold, a dumb demoniac was brought to him. <sup>33</sup> And when the demon had been cast out, the dumb man spoke; and the crowds marveled, saying, “Never was anything like this seen in Israel.” <sup>34</sup> But the Pharisees said, “He casts out demons by the prince of demons.”

The Harvest Is Great, the Laborers Few

<sup>35</sup> And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every disease and every infirmity.

LIVING ORTHODOXY

12 Practical Ways to Live Out the Faith at Home

By Sarah Wright: an Orthodox Christian, a wife, a mother of three, a teacher, and blog writer

1. Pray the Morning Prayers as a Family

Related Article: Making Time for Morning Prayers

2. Create an Icon Corner

Related Article: How to Create an Icon Corner

3. Read Orthodox Children’s Books Together

If your children are anything like mine, they look forward to our family reading time each night! One simple way to bring our faith into our daily lives is to begin reading some Orthodox stories during that reading time. There are many fantastic children’s books out there about the life of Christ, of the saints, of holy living, and more. We also have a shelf in our living room that is dedicated to our Orthodox books. The shelf is easily accessible to our children, inviting them to read them at any time.

Related Article: Top 5 Favorite Orthodox Children’s Books

4. Read (or Listen To) the Daily Readings as a Family

In the Orthodox Church, each day has certain Scripture readings that are assigned to it. These include a Gospel reading and either an Epistle or an Old Testament reading. Your family can read these together, perhaps at the dinner table or before Evening prayers. You can also listen to the daily readings through Ancient Faith Radio’s podcast The Path. We also like to read the Gospel in our children’s Bible so it is slightly easier for the little ones to understand.

Related Article: Top 10 Best Resources for Orthodox Families

5. Pray the Evening Prayers

Adding the Evening Prayers to your bedtime routine can be transformational to your family. You can make it as simple as you would like. In our family we often just pray the Trisagion prayers, the Jesus Prayer, and then sing a hymn. I am amazed at how even our youngest can learn to pray the Lord’s Prayer and sing along with us!

Related Article: Creating a Routine of Evening Prayers

6. Ask Forgiveness of Each Other

Each member of a family will offend the others at one time or another. That is why asking each other for forgiveness is so important. Parents can teach their children how to ask for forgiveness, model it, and in turn ask their children or spouse for forgiveness when needed. Another great way to practice forgiveness is by having a “mini-Forgiveness Vespers” as a family once a week or more. Each family member will prostrate before the others, say, “Forgive me, a sinner” and hear, “God forgives and so do I.” What a powerful practice.

7. Make Name Days a Big Deal

Our culture goes all out in celebrating birthdays! However, in many Orthodox countries, name days (or saint days) are an even bigger deal. Each Orthodox Christian has a saint that they were named after or received at chrismation. That saint’s feast day is then known as the person’s name day. Help teach your child the importance of their relationship with their saint by celebrating their name day. We let the child celebrating choose a special meal and special treat, hold the icon of their saint during prayers, lead in singing their saint’s troparion, and listen to the story of their saint.

Related Article: Celebrating Name Days

8. Sing the Hymns of the Church

Children love to sing and listen to music. They also learn things much better when they are put to music. This makes singing hymns such a fun and natural way to incorporate the faith into daily life. You can listen to Ancient Faith radio, purchase Orthodox music to play at home and in the car, sing hymns from Liturgy during prayers, etc. If your church sings the Lord’s Prayer, sing it during prayer time to help your children learn it. The options are endless!

9. Fast Together

There are four fasting periods in the Orthodox Church—Great Lent, the Apostles Fast, the Dormition Fast, and the Nativity Fast. In addition, Orthodox Christians also fast every Wednesday (in remembrance of the betrayal of Christ) and Friday (in remembrance of Christ’s crucifixion). Fasting for the Orthodox means abstaining from meat and dairy products as a way to eat more simply and focus on prayer and almsgiving. Involving your entire family in the fasts—talking about the reasons for fasting, giving to food banks, letting children help plan the menu—can be a meaningful way to live out the faith at home.

Related Article: Our Family’s Plan for Great Lent

10. Find Ways to Give to Others

The family unit is not only focused on itself, however. We are called to help our children learn to love and serve others as Christ commanded. This can mean volunteering together at a local charity, cleaning the church building, writing letters to elderly church members, or donating toys and clothes to shelters.

Related Article: 10 Ways Your Children Can Serve Others

11. Pray Before and After Meals

Perhaps the simplest way to begin making the home a Little Church is by praying before and after meals. This small act reminds the entire family that everything is a gift from God, that everyone depends on His blessing and provision. Giving thanks for our food can lead to a spirit of humility and gratitude in other areas of life.

12. Attend Liturgies as a Family

Finally, one of the most important things that we as parents can do for our children is to take them to Church. Bring them before God in the Divine Liturgy, pray with them, listen to the Word of God, and receive the Eucharist together. Yes, it can be very difficult (not to mention exhausting!) having young children in Church. But, remember, they are God’s children. And he wants them in Church. He welcomes them—and you—to His house.

Related Article: Engaging Children in Church: Tips and Tricks for Parents

Above all, the greatest way to live out your faith at home is through love. Love God. Love each other. Love others.

The rest will follow.

DEVOTIONAL PRAYERS OF THE WEEK:

Lord, keep the thoughts of Your servant untroubled, and keep far from me every satanic activity. Enlighten the reason-endowed eyes of my heart, lest I fall into the sleep of death. Send to me an angel of peace, a guide and guardian of my soul and body, that he may deliver me from my enemies; that, rising from my bed, I may offer You prayers of thanksgiving. Amen.
