PARISH BULLETIN BOARD ANNOUNCEMENTS

(Please have submissions for this section to Father by Wednesday.)

Relocation Updates – We will NOT be moving to the rental space in Wexford.

The agent for the building in Wexford's first priority was to find a tenant, then finalize the details. When she reached out to Marshall Township this past week to confirm the "church use" of the building, she learned that it is not permitted because of the zoning codes (a church is permitted to have offices within the building, however, not assemble as a "Church"). She said, "I am very disappointed and I sincerely apologize that we cannot make this work. Please accept my deepest sympathy and I pray that God has a better plan for your congregation."

As our relocation committee continues to work with our realtor, it is important that all of our community continues to pray for His guidance (and patience as this takes time).

God has a better plan and it will work in His time.

Please continue to talk with the Relocation Committee or Father with any thoughts or concerns about our next steps in our journey together. (Committee includes: Sharon P, Larry M, Carol L, John K, John Righetti, Lynn M, Matt P, Peggy Rusnak, Rich M, Sharon D, Tim M, & Todd Tusick)

Snowed In? Physically unable to make it to church? - Our diocese is blessed with the opportunity to watch our Cathedral's Divine Liturgy every Sunday at 9am. Of course, the best scenario is to attend the Divine Liturgy and receive the Eucharist. When limitations occur, please consider taking the time Sunday morning to pray with our brothers and sisters via the web. Go to www.acrod.org/organizations/cathedral/live/ to watch the live broadcast.

Snow Removal Team - as temperatures have begun to drop, we are reminded that snow is on it's way. Just a reminder that we will be looking for folks, as in the past, to offer some of their time prior to people getting to church on Sundays to help with snow removal. Please let Father know if you will be able to come earlier to Church to assist with keeping the sidewalks clear. Ideally we will have a rotation of people so that the same person is not doing it each snowfall.

Coffee Social Steward Schedule

The Divine Liturgy concludes at the final blessing, but the liturgy continues downstairs as we gather in love and fellowship with our parish family and visiting neighbors. LIVES OF THE SAINTS

The Prophet Sophonias (or Zephaniah)

Commemorated on December 16/3

The Prophet Sophonias (or Zephaniah) was a contemporary of the Prophet Jeremiah and the Prophetess Oldama. He was of illustrious lineage [from the tribe of Simeon, and was the 9th of the Twelve Minor Prophets of the Old Testament]. The prophet lived at the royal court, where he preached repentance and helped king Josiah extirpate idol-worship.

He prophesied about the calamities that were to come for the people of Judea and the surrounding regions: Gaza, Ascalon, Crete, and against the Moabites, the Ammonites and the Ninevites.

SUNDAY'S SCRIPTURE READINGS

"Of all the afflictions that burden the human race, there is not one, whether spiritual or bodily, that cannot be healed by the Holy Scriptures." +Saint John Chrysostom

Epistle: 1 Timothy 1:15-17

¹⁵The saying is sure and worthy of full acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. And I am the foremost of sinners; ¹⁶but I received mercy for this reason, that in me, as the foremost, Jesus Christ might display his perfect patience for an example to those who were to believe in him for eternal life. ¹⁷To the King of ages, immortal, invisible, the only God, be honor and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Gospel: Luke 18:18-27

The Rich Ruler

¹⁸And a ruler asked him, "Good Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?" ¹⁹And Jesus said to him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. ²⁰You know the commandments: 'Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honor your father and mother.'" ²¹And he said, "All these I have observed from my youth." ²²And when Jesus heard it, he said to him, "One thing you still lack. Sell all that you have and distribute to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me." ²³But when he heard this he became sad, for he was very rich. ²⁴Jesus looking at him said, "How hard it is for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God! ²⁵For it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God." ²⁶Those who heard it said, "Then who can be saved?" ²⁷But he said, "What is impossible with men is possible with God."

LIVING ORTHODOXY

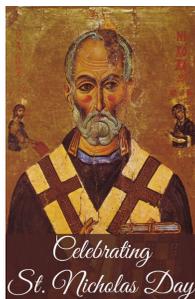

Ways to Celebrate St. Nicholas Day

Source: <http://www.orthodoxmotherhood.com/ways-to-celebrate-st-nicholas-day/>

Santa Claus may just be one of the most recognizable figures in the world. Far fewer people, however, know the story of the real St. Nicholas.

Nicholas was born in the third century on the southern coast of Turkey. His wealthy parents, who were very devout Christians, raised their son in the fear of God. They died, however, when he was still very young. St. Nicholas used his inheritance to help the poor and destitute, following Christ's command to give all that you have to follow him.

Nicholas soon became Bishop over Myra and was a devout defender of the faith, the poor, and the children. He was imprisoned for his faith during the persecutions under the Emperor Diocletian. He was later released and was part of the Council of Nicea (an early church council which affirmed the doctrine of Christ's full divinity and full humanity). St. Nicholas died on December 6, 343.

In the Orthodox Church, we celebrate the feast of St. Nicholas on December 19. When my husband and I first became Orthodox, I was very excited to discover ways that our family could celebrate this holy saint. Here are a few ideas and resources that our family has enjoyed over the past few years.

1. Go to Church

Many Orthodox churches celebrate Divine Liturgy or Vespers on December 19. Take the family to church and worship in the same way that St. Nicholas would have back in the third and fourth centuries. Light a candle and ask the saint to pray for you. You can also pray for the poor that he loved so much.

2. Serve the Poor

Follow the example of St. Nicholas and serve the poor in his honor on December 19. You can volunteer at a homeless shelter, sort food at a pantry, or make kits for refugees.

3. Read Books about St. Nicholas

There are several great children’s books about St. Nicholas that would make excellent additions to your family library.

St. Nicholas and The Nine Gold Coins

by Jim Forest

The Baker’s Dozen: A St. Nicholas Tale

by Aaron Shephard

St. Nicholas the Wonderworker

by Lily Parascheva

The Miracle of St. Nicholas

by Gloria Whelan (Though this technically isn’t about St. Nicholas, it’s a lovely story about a church called St. Nicholas in Russia that was closed under communism and reopened on Christmas Eve.)

4. Fill Your Children’s Shoes

One early tradition for celebrating St. Nicholas Day involves filling children’s shoes with small tokens. One favorite story of St. Nicholas tells of the saint leaving money for three dowry-less girls in their shoes at night. Our family tells our children this story on the night before St. Nicholas Day. Our children then leave out their shoes, and my husband and I fill them with chocolate coins while they sleep. It’s fun for everyone!

5. Use Other Great Resources

There are many fabulous resources online that provide ideas for activities, give coloring sheets, and more. Here are a few of my favorites:

The Saint Nicholas Center This is the most comprehensive website with stories of St. Nicholas, games, activities, and coloring sheets.

Show God’s Love: St. Nicholas of Myra in Lycia The OCA has a great Church School (or homeschool) lesson on St. Nicholas for elementary school students.

St. Nicholas Day on Close to Home Molly Sabourin has a very fun podcast interviewing her young son about his favorite St. Nicholas day traditions.

St. Nicholas Day Traditions Adventures of an Orthodox Mom shares her family’s traditions for St. Nicholas Day. She also includes an excellent fasting sugar cookie recipe.

This St. Nicholas Day will find my family at our church (also named St. Nicholas, and celebrating its feast day!), surrounded by our church family, singing the Hymn of St. Nicholas:

Oh, who loves Nicholas the saintly
Oh, who serves Nicholas the saintly
Him will Nicholas receive
And give help in time of need Nicholas! Nicholas!

Holy Father Nicholas, pray for us that we may love the Incarnate Christ and serve the poor around us. Amen.

How does your family celebrate St. Nicholas Day? Please share additional ideas with Fr. Dave

SPIRITUAL VITAMINS FOR THE WEEK

SUNDAY

“Without God’s will or God’s forbearance nothing takes place on earth.” - Metropolitan Gregory (Postnikov) of St. Petersburg

MONDAY

“St. Seraphim tells us: “It is easy to humble yourself before God, while to humble yourself before people is more difficult.” Indeed, it is precisely the ability or inability to humble ourselves before our neighbors that shows whether or not there is real repentance within us: whether or not we are walking along the right path of spiritual life. You must work on this.” - Bishop Photii of Traditza

TUESDAY

“It is God’s wish that each day we should be renewed and start up again with a virtuous change of will, and with a renewal of mind.” +St. Isaac the Syrian

WEDNESDAY – FEAST OF ST. NICHOLAS OF MYRA

“A man who is growing cold towards God begins first of all to flee attending church. At first he tries to come to services later, and then he ceases altogether to visit God’s temple...Here in the skete we even make the rounds of the cells on feast days, so that no one evades church services.” - Elder Barsanuphius of Optina

THURSDAY

“ those who are attached to earthly things, especially to food and drink, to money, become “sensual, having not the Spirit.” And in everything they only see the flesh, not contemplating the spirit, and even rejecting the spiritual side of things.” +St. John Kronstadt

FRIDAY

“The more days of fasting there are, the better the healing is; the longer the period of abstinence, the more abundant the gain of salvation is.” +Blessed Augustine

SATURDAY

“When God recedes in order to educate us, this brings great sadness, humility and even some measure of despair to the soul. The purpose of this is to humble the souls tendency to vanity and self-glory, for the heart at once is filled with fear of God, tears of thankfulness, and great longing for the beauty of silence.” +St. Diadochus of Photiki

DEVOTIONAL PRAYER FOR THE NATIVITY FAST:

Prayer for Peace - 2018 NATIVITY FAST PRAYER CHALLENGE

Metropolitan Gregory asks each member of our Diocese, either as a family or individually, to pray this Prayer for Peace every evening of the Nativity Fast.

O Lord, You told us through the Psalmist David to be still and know that You are God. (Psalm 46:10) Yet, in our weakness, that stillness is far from our hearts and minds. We are restless in soul and body. The constant noise of the world drowns out Your still, small voice. (1 Kings 19:12) Even as we prepare during this season to remember Your Birth, we are diverted by many cares. We are anxious and troubled, neglecting the one thing needful. (Luke 10:41-42)

Holy Master, keep us away from those things which distract us from knowing Your Presence. Grant us the stillness, silence, peace, and calm that only comes from You. Help us to be diligent in prayer and attentive to the needs of others.

As Your Holy Mother beheld the great mystery of Your Incarnation, she silently pondered it in her most-pure heart. (Luke 2:19) Allow us to reach the celebration of Your coming in the flesh so that, silently contemplating it in our own hearts, we too may be filled with every grace and blessing and give glory to You forever. Amen.
